

ArtsGreensboro Opens Applications for 2019 Five-County Regional Artist Grant

Individual artists must live in Alamance, Caswell, Guilford, Randolph, or Rockingham counties, and focus on visual, performing, literary, or interdisciplinary arts

Applications due by Midnight on Monday, November 26 2018

Greensboro, N.C., September 27, 2018 — ArtsGreensboro announced today that applications are available for the 2019 Regional Artist Grant program, which ArtsGreensboro administers on behalf of a consortium of five counties—Alamance, Caswell, Guilford, Randolph, and Rockingham. Funding for this program is provided by the North Carolina Arts Council and matched by participating Arts Councils in the five counties.

The application is available online at: <https://www.artsgreensboro.org/grant-programs/regional-artist-project-grants/>

Regional Artist Grants provide support to help exceptionally talented visual, performing, literary, and interdisciplinary artists pursue projects that further their professional artistic development.

To be eligible, artists be at least 18 years old and must have lived in their county for the year preceding the submission of their application. While the grants are available to artists at all stage of their careers, artists who are currently enrolled in undergraduate, graduate, or academic certification programs in their art forms may not apply. Artists who received a Regional Artist Grant over the last three years (i.e., 2016, 2017, or 2018) are not eligible.

Applicants must submit artistic work samples and provide a narrative case for support. Eligible artistic disciplines include:

- Music,
- Dance,
- Visual arts,
- Film/video,
- Drama, and
- Literature.

Regional Artist Grants provide important financial support for artists across the five counties. In 2018, 19 artists received a total of $18,000 in grants from this program. This cooperative effort fosters relationships between regional arts councils and also encourages networking among artists across counties.

(more)

Find further details and application forms at www.artsgreensboro.org/grant-programs/regional-artist-project-grants/; completed applications are due by Midnight on November 26, 2018.

Applications will be reviewed by a volunteer panel and evaluated on:

- Artistic excellence,
- Professional commitment to his/her art form,
- Contribution of the proposed project to the artist's professional development, and
- Feasibility of the proposed project.

Please contact ArtsGreensboro Grants Manager Chip Berry at grants@artsgreensboro.org, with any questions or to review applications before final submission.

Notification of awards will be made in January 2018, with the final report due to ArtsGreensboro by January 15, 2020.

#####

About ArtsGreensboro: As it has been for more than 50 years, ArtsGreensboro is an arts council and catalyst for connecting the community and building recognition and support for the arts. Through its annual community-wide Campaign for the Arts, it supports more than 50 arts organizations, projects, artists and schools annually. ArtsGreensboro drives the health and vitality of our community by supporting arts education, celebrating the diversity of Greensboro, and driving economic impact through excellence in arts programming.
artsgreensboro.org